THANK YOU

I want to thank so many people for being supportive of the last two weeks' celebrations of the feasts of Pentecost and Corpus Christi. Everyone worked together as a parish family. As a family we are social as well as spiritual, and these two events gave us the opportunity to know each other, to work together, and to minister together.

First, was the celebration of Pentecost. After mass in our churches that were beautifully decorated with such love and care, we had a wonderful and well-attended social gathering to celebrate the birthday of our church together as a parish.

The members of the Corpus Christi Group were a great help in preparing for the feast of Corpus Christi, the first event of the three-year Eucharistic Revival. On Saturday, a group representing our parish went to Atlantic City to be part of the Diocesan Corpus Christi procession. On Sunday, after the 10:00 Mass, we celebrated in a grandiose way with a procession around the streets near St. John's. We stopped along the way for benediction at stations set up outside the homes of the Juliani and Chomicewzski families. As we processed, we listened to prayers (composed by our Corpus Christi Group members) on the topics of peace, conversion, the suffering, and the sick. The prayers will be in the bulletin over the next four weeks. This week, the prayers published are the Prayers for Peace. Our Music Director, Kate, had a "rolling microphone" and played hymns for us to sing as we walked.

Special thanks to parishioners for their assistance in the following ways:

- The Hospitality Committee for organizing and hosting the Pentecost party.
- Those who donated baked goods for the Pentecost birthday party;
- Those who represented our parish in the Diocesan celebration in Atlantic City;
- Larry Gatti who donated the canopy that covered the Blessed Sacrament in the procession;
- The Juliani and Chomiczewski families who hosted the stations outside their homes;
- Decorators, banner creator, and sign makers who spent hours making sure everything was done to perfection;
- Composers and readers of prayers;
- Behind the scenes organizers;
- Our Music Director for providing hymns and the "rolling microphone";
- Collingswood Police who redirected traffic and kept the route safe for our participants;
- Those who participated in this beautiful procession as a gesture of their love of the Eucharist.

A parishioner once stated: "My home is my parish." This statement is profound! When we can identify our parish as our spiritual home, it helps us to be a family. Let us continue to be a united family of Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish.

Special Collection This Weekend

There will be a special collection this weekend for the Holy Father—Peter's Pence collection.

Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Stewardship Freedom

"For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another with love."

(GALATIANS 5:13)

We like to celebrate that we are free to "live the good life." We can do what we want, anytime we want, with no regard for laws. But, Jesus calls us to Stewardship. St. Paul reminds us that by imitating Jesus we are freed from becoming a slave to our own self-interests and desires, so that we can serve one another. We are free to share our gifts and promote God's work on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

Parish Celebration of Corpus Christi: Prayers for Peace

Dear God, our Father, we thank you for this holy day of Corpus Christi, as we honor your Son's real presence as the Body of Christ in the Eucharist. In your great goodness, help us to know you and to see you each time we celebrate the Sacrifice of the Mass, allowing your Spirit to breathe in us, making us fresh and new. In a special way today, we ask for your unfailing love and aid in our troubled world, particularly in areas of conflict and violence. In your kindness and love for your people, end the conflict in Ukraine as this country struggles to maintain its freedom. Help Eastern Europe to find ways to peace that honor all peoples who are living in this area of the world.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

Lord, give us your grace and wisdom in solving the ongoing gun violence in our own country, where so many innocent lives have been ended through the recent mass killings in Buffalo, in California, and in Uvalde, Texas. We pray, too, for our cities, as governments and leaders struggle to manage the unprecedented loss of lives through shootings that continue almost daily; guide us all in finding solutions to these horrific events, thereby bringing much needed freedom and peace to our nation. We thank you, Almighty God, for the many blessings you have given us, especially the love and friendship we enjoy as parishioners of St. Teresa of Calcutta parish. May we learn to love our neighbors whomever and wherever they are and may we continue to do your work of creating a community of justice and peace in our world.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

Volunteers Needed: English Classes

Dear Parishioners,

Pope Francis states that volunteers are, "among the most precious things the Church has ... your presence is the hand of Christ held out to all, and reaching all".

The Sisters of Saint Joseph Neighborhood Center in the Cramer Hill section of Camden, offers English classes to our immigrant sisters and brothers. The Sisters are inviting you to participate in this ministry of teaching English. Our adult Neighbors come to the Center eager to learn English to improve their lives, support their families and to become contributing members of society. We are inviting volunteers 18 and older to be present to our Neighbors and share their love of the English language for two hours on Tuesday or Thursday morning or evening.

If you have a desire to make a difference in someone's life, are patient and have a sense of humor please call Sister Clarisa at 856-338-8220 ext. 102.

Thank you for considering this ministry.
Sister Clarisa

Weekly Tip: Caring for Our Common Home

Talk with fellow parishioners about the possibility of sharing rides to Mass and other parish events as a way of reducing your carbon footprint. You can take this a step further by organizing occasional walk-to-church weekends.

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: 1 Kings 19: 16b, 19-21

The LORD said to Elijah: “You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah, as prophet to succeed you.” Elijah set out and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, as he was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen; he was following the twelfth. Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, “Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and I will follow you.” Elijah answered, “Go back! Have I done anything to you?” Elisha left him, and taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them; he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh, and gave it to his people to eat. Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: You are my inheritance, O Lord.

SECOND READING: Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Brothers and sisters: For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery. For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another. I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

GOSPEL: Luke 9: 51-62

When the days for Jesus’ being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem, and he sent messengers ahead of him. On the way they entered a Samaritan village to prepare for his reception there, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, “Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?” Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village. As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, “I will follow you wherever you go.” Jesus answered him, “Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head.” And to another he said, “Follow me.” But he replied, “Lord, let me go first and bury my father.” But he answered him, “Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.” And another said, “I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home.” To him Jesus said, “No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God.”

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
