

SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA MISSION STATEMENT

We are the welcoming community of Saint Teresa of Calcutta living our faith by endeavoring to follow her example to see, share and be the light of Christ's love and compassion.

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time: September 18, 2022

Parish Information: September 18, 2022

Welcome to Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish!

We are pleased to have you share in this celebration of the Eucharist. If you do not have a parish home we invite you to become part of our parish family and become fully involved in our life of prayer, education, service and community.

Registration: We invite all parishioners to register with the Parish. Registration helps us to serve you when issuing letters in connection with sponsorship of Baptism, Confirmation or Matrimony, and for letters of reference. Kindly notify the office if your address changes.

Anointing of the Sick: In case of serious illness or advanced age please call the parish office. For hospital cases, contact the hospital Chaplain.

Pastoral Care: Please call the parish office to have Communion brought to an ill or homebound family member.

I want to express my gratitude to all who helped out with the feast of Saint Teresa of Calcutta and the social gathering which raised funds to support the ongoing needs of our parish. Those two events were planned through the contributions of so many parishioners. Thank you to those who gave many hours to pull together ideas as a committee to bring them to a wonderful completion. On behalf of the members of the parish, I express my gratitude to Michelle Santiago, the Event Coordinator of the Parish, and her committee for all the good work they are doing. I want to thank the Parish Council for their assistance with these wonderful events. I appreciate your support of my pastoral duties through your advice about these functions and all your efforts to make them so successful.

Thank you to all the members of our ministries who have provided baskets and items for raising funds, and to all our sponsors. Thank you to everyone for being so helpful by supporting our committees in their projects. This is a sign of true missionary discipleship when you put your faith in action. As we often say: "A family who prays together stays together". We believe all the events we are hosting in our parish can bring us closer, as family and as parishioners. We are designed to live "in community". The parish is our spiritual home. We are spiritual and social beings. As a spiritual family it is important to host social events to create opportunities to get to know each other and to be together in a social setting.

Pope Francis, in his letter to the leaders of our Catholic faith, specifically addressed to priests, has told us that we need to be "shepherds with the smell of the sheep". That directive is also valid for all church leaders, as we cannot be leaders, either in groups or as ministry leaders, without spending time with the people whom we are mentoring, showing them Jesus' way, and sharing kindness as Jesus has done. It is important for us as priest and ministry leaders to enjoy social time with our parishioners.

Keeping this in perspective, Saint Teresa of Calcutta parish offers many wonderful spiritual enrichment events and social gathering events. Yes, we are living in a busy world, and I'm so happy you devote time and talents to enrich your church. We are a parish filled with wonderful people who show their love of the church and their brother and sister parishioners not only by words but by being true missionary disciples serving and ministering to others. This a very positive sign for us as Catholic Christians of Saint Teresa of Calcutta parish community. You have also proven this to me in the way that you supported our House of Charity drive, our outdoor concert to honor our blessed Mother, and the social events which were also fundraisers for the parish. Your participation in all the events are signs of who you are for the parish, and this is noticed by others who see how much you love your parish community.

Most of our events were held for the first time, and we hope through your efforts to continue to host annual events such as these for our parish. Once again, thank you for all you do to make Saint Teresa of Calcutta a vibrant and caring community!

May God bless you and continue to bring you all closer to him.

Join us for Season 2 of THE CHOSEN.

*If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them goes astray, will he not leave the ninety-nine in the hills and go in search of the stray? And if he finds it, amen,
I say to you, he rejoices more over it than the other ninety-nine that did not stray.*

Matthew 18: 12-14

In Season Two of "The Chosen", Jesus has embarked on His public ministry, along with His Disciples, who are gradually increasing in number. Though their love for Jesus is absolute, they must learn who else is worthy of their love and mercy. Through His works and parables, the disciples gradually come to understand that everyone is worthy of God's love. This unconventional idea was challenging for them and continues to be so for us today. As Jesus told His Disciples in the first episode of this new season of "The Chosen":

"I ask a lot of those who follow Me, but I ask little of those who don't".

Please join us on Wednesday, September 21, 2022 at 7:00 pm in McLaughlin Hall to view the first episode of Season Two ("The Worthy and the Unworthy") of The Chosen. After that, small groups will meet weekly to view an episode, reflect on what has been presented, and share our thoughts.

There two opportunities to participate in this meaningful experience:

Prayer for our Common Home

O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, who are so precious in your eyes... God of love, show us our place in this world as channels of your love for all the creatures of this earth, God of mercy, may we receive your forgiveness and convey your mercy throughout our common home.

Weekly Tip:

Caring for Our Common Home

There is a nobility in the duty to care for creation through little daily actions, and it is wonderful how education can bring about real changes in lifestyle. Education in environmental responsibility can encourage ways of acting which directly and significantly affect the world around us." (Laudato Si', 211

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

Faith Formation 2022-23 Begins Next Week!

Our Faith Formation Program begins on Sunday September 25 and Tuesday September 27. Only registered children should attend. There are still some openings in some classes. Please contact the parish office for further information.

Celebrating Our Saints

Sunday October 16, 12-2PM
Good Shepherd Cafeteria

Bring your children or grandchildren and join your parish family for a fun afternoon learning about the saints and celebrating them as models of love and faith.

Light Lunch, Activities, Prayer, Games
Cost is $3 per person. Reservations required.
Call 858-0298 or email plipperini@stteresaofcalcuttanj.org

Catechists Needed

If you are looking for a meaningful and fulfilling way to serve our Lord, look no further than our Faith Formation Program. Catechists, those who help pass on the faith to our children, are a vital part of our parish's ministry. We have specific need for:

Sunday Mornings, 9:30-10:45
Kindergarten, 2nd,

Tuesday Afternoons, 3:30-4:45
Special Needs aide to companion one younger child

Catechetical Sunday

This weekend we celebrate Catechetical Sunday, a time to thank our fellow parishioners who have answered the call to be catechists. At each Mass, they will be called forth for a special blessing, asking God to support them in this special ministry.

This is also a time to reflect upon everyone's call to be a catechist to the people in our lives. We are all called to share God's love and life so that those we know can be strengthened and comforted.

Wisdom from the Saints

"Holy Communion is the shortest and safest way to heaven. There are others: innocence, but that is for little children; penance, but we are afraid of it; generous endurance of trials of life, but then they come we weep and ask to be spared. The surest, easiest, shortest way is the Eucharist."

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Amos 8:4-7

Hear this, you who trample upon the needy and destroy the poor of the land! "When will the new moon be over," you ask, "that we may sell our grain, and the sabbath, that we may display the wheat? We will diminish the ephah, add to the shekel, and fix our scales for cheating! We will buy the lowly for silver, and the poor for a pair of sandals; even the refuse of the wheat we will sell!" The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Never will I forget a thing they have done!

SECOND READING: 1 Timothy 2:1-8

Beloved: First of all, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity. This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth. For there is one God. There is also one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as ransom for all. This was the testimony at the proper time. For this I was appointed preacher and apostle — I am speaking the truth, I am not lying —, teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. It is my wish, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger or argument.

GOSPEL: Luke 16:1-13

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.' The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.' He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently.

"For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
