Sanctuary Candle

The sanctuary candle burns before the Blessed Sacrament 7 days a week, all year. It candle will be burned this week in memory of:

Holy Saviour: Edmund Haughey r/b the Family

"Luxury" must be a favorite word in the lexicon of advertisers. They have this long-standing practice of pairing it with any item they are trying to get you and me to buy. One could almost run through the whole alphabet naming pairs. Start with "Apartments, Bathtubs, Cars, Dog kennels" and you see what I mean. You get the immediate appeal. All of this stems from the advertisers' clever turn of a noun into an adjective!

You may ask yourself: "Are they doing something wrong?" Not in itself. Unless they're intentionally lying. After awhile, we catch on to the fact that there might not be much truth to back up their claims. However, the rabid pursuit of that noun—luxury— is enough to drive a person into an insidious state of selfishness. Oh, how Lord rails against that! Today we hear about a form of selfishness called "indifference to other's pain." Specifically here we get an example of a man with an uncaring view of the pain and suffering of the poor. He stakes out what you might call a "cool neutral" about the matter. This rich man in Our Lord's story is exactly that. The poor are no problem to him because he doesn't even see them. That is, until the positions are reversed.

Do you see that he has a strong resemblance to Judas? Remember his outrage over the cost of the ointment that a devout woman had used to anoint Jesus' feet? Judas lamented that the money spent there could have been used to benefit the poor. But he had no real concern for the poor. In fact, he may not have even noticed them most of the time. Greed had blinded him to anything other than accumulating money for the purse he controlled and from which he likely skimmed for luxuries. We know that fact from St. John's gospel.

The rich man who ignored poor suffering Lazarus was no different. He rightly gets Our Lord's condemnation. Jesus Himself chose a poor man's lifestyle while He was personally present here on earth. He owned little more than the clothes on His back. He had to surrender even those to the rough Roman soldiers preparing Him for crucifixion who ripped them off His back.

As citizens of the world's arguably wealthiest country, we have to be vigilant with our own perspective on luxury. Particularly if acquiring it is one of our main goals in life. Care for the poor is a prime component of our baptismal commitment. True Christians have no other option.

One of the problems we could have is the fear that we will miss what we have acquired if we have to give it even partially away. Here, in part, is how the poet/songwriter Michael Card wrote about this fear in his composition titled:

"The Things We Leave Behind":

"There sits Simon, foolish and wise.
Proudly he's tending his nets.
Jesus calls and the boats drift away.
And all that he owns he forgets.
But more than the nets he abandoned that day,
He found that his pride was soon fading away.
It's hard to imagine the freedom we find
From the things we leave behind."

Matthew was mindful of taking the tax
And pressing the people to pay.
At hearing the call he responded in faith
And followed the Light and the Way.
And leaving the people so puzzled he found
It's hard to imagine the freedom we find
From the things we leave behind."

God love you and give you His peace.

*If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them goes astray, will he not leave the ninety-nine in the hills and go in search of the stray? And if he finds it, amen,
I say to you, he rejoices more over it
than the other ninety-nine that did not stray.*

Matthew 18: 12-14

In Season Two of "The Chosen", Jesus has embarked on His public ministry, along with His Disciples, who are gradually increasing in number. Though their love for Jesus is absolute, they must learn who else is worthy of their love and mercy. Through His works and parables, the disciples gradually come to understand that everyone is worthy of God's love. This unconventional idea was challenging for them and continues to be so for us today. As Jesus told His Disciples in the first episode of this new season of "The Chosen":

"I ask a lot of those who follow Me,
but I ask little of those who don't".

Please join us on Wednesday, September 21, 2022 at 7:00 pm in McLaughlin Hall to view the first episode of Season Two ("The Worthy and the Unworthy") of The Chosen. After that, small groups will meet weekly to view an episode, reflect on what has been presented, and share our thoughts.

There two opportunities to participate in this meaningful experience:

Tuesday Mornings 9:30 am in McLaughlin Hall

Wednesday evenings 7:00 pm in McLaughlin Hall

Parish Ministries

Eucharistic Revival: Teaching Masses

It is surprising how many Catholics have questions about what we do during the celebration of the Mass. Beginning on the weekend of October 8-9, parishes will spend time teaching the significance of each part of the Mass.

On the weekend of October 1-2 and for the next 5 weeks, there will be an insert in each week's bulletin about the part of the Mass that will be explained by the priest at Mass on the following week. For example, the October 1-2 insert will focus on the Introductory Rites of the Mass, and that part will be explained by the priest on October 8-9. You are encouraged to read and prayerfully reflect on this material during the week so that you will better understand the brief explanation given by the priest.

Following the series of teaching Masses we will celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King and the end of the Liturgical Year.

Season of Creation Pray in Nature

Pick a natural or agricultural place to contemplate: A forest, a river, a city street with a natural area, an urban park, a farmer's field, a hilltop.

Find a comfortable place to rest in or near this place. Enter into prayer in whatever way is natural to you. Invite Holy Wisdom to open the eyes of your heart. When you are ready, reflect on the following questions:

How is God present in this place?
How do you feel knowing that you
one with Earth?

Weekly Tip: Caring for Our Common Home

If possible, use email and text-messaging to reduce paper consumption. If you must print a document, use double-sided printing if you can. These steps will help conserve natural resources and save money as well.

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

Wisdom from the Saints

“Holy Communion is the shortest and safest way to heaven. There are others: innocence, but that is for little children; penance, but we are afraid of it; generous endurance of trials of life, but then they come we weep and ask to be spared. The surest, easiest, shortest way is the Eucharist.”

Text: LM with additions; St. Francis of Assisi, 1182–1226; Laudato sia Dio mio Signore;
tr. by William H. Draper, 1855–1933, alt. Music: Auserlesene Catholische Kirchengesänge, Cologne, 1623.

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Amos 6: 1a,4-7

Thus says the LORD the God of hosts: Woe to the complacent in Zion! Lying upon beds of ivory, stretched comfortably on their couches, they eat lambs taken from the flock, and calves from the stall! Improvising to the music of the harp, like David, they devise their own accompaniment. They drink wine from bowls and anoint themselves with the best oils; yet they are not made ill by the collapse of Joseph. Therefore, now they shall be the first to go into exile, and their wanton revelry shall be done away with.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Praise the Lord, my soul.

SECOND READING: 1 Timothy 6: 11-16

But you, man of God, pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Compete well for the faith. Lay hold of eternal life, to which you were called when you made the noble confession in the presence of many witnesses. I charge you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who gave testimony under Pontius Pilate for the noble confession, to keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ that the blessed and only ruler will make manifest at the proper time, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, and whom no human being has seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal power. Amen.

GOSPEL: Luke 16: 19-31

Jesus said to the Pharisees: "There was a rich man who dressed in purple garments and fine linen and dined sumptuously each day. And lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who would gladly have eaten his fill of the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Dogs even used to come and lick his sores. When the poor man died, he was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried, and from the netherworld, where he was in torment, he raised his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. And he cried out, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me. Send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am suffering torment in these flames.' Abraham replied, 'My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established to prevent anyone from crossing who might wish to go from our side to yours or from your side to ours.' He said, 'Then I beg you, father, send him to my father's house, for I have five brothers, so that he may warn them, lest they too come to this place of torment.' But Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.' He said, 'Oh no, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' Then Abraham said, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'"

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERTORY HYMN: “Your Song of Love”

Verse 1

May your grace make me whole again.
May your eyes make me see again.
May your words make me hear again
your song of love.
May your hands touch the poor again.
May your arms hold the sick again.
May your smile fill each heart again
through who I am.

Refrain

Your love within my heart, Lord,
holds me, heals me, brings me to myself,
like the North Star in the sky
brings me home into your light, into your love.

Verse 2

May your birth make me live again.
May your death make me free again.
May your life make me sing again
your song of love.
May your feet walk the road again.
May your voice raise the dead again.
May your will call the storm again
through who I am.

Refrain

Your love within my heart, Lord,
holds me, heals me, brings me to myself,
like the North Star in the sky
brings me home into your light, into your
love.

Verse 3

Let my tears wash your feet again.
Let my cloth wipe your face again.
Let my home give you rest again
in those I see.
Let me give you your food again.
Let me shoulder your step again.
Let me answer your call again
in who I am.
