Sanctuary Lamp

The Sanctuary Lamp will be burned this week in memory of:

St. John: Daniel Kirschner r/b Nicolette Weaver

Whenever we learn how a great person handled a serious problem with a wise solution, we pay attention. For example, the situation of giving a dedication speech at Gettysburg cemetery that faced Abraham Lincoln. He had to be thinking “As president of a war-torn country, and commander-in-chief, what do I say at the dedication of a cemetery filled with the dead of both armies? How do I underscore the inherent nobility of dying for one’s country? Also, how do I say it with the minimum of words and the maximum belief in the cause for which these soldiers died?” We know that in his Gettysburg Address Mr. Lincoln did all of that succinctly and memorably well.

Today we hear about a challenge hurled at Jesus Our Lord by some of his sworn enemies. They were only interested in how He would answer their deceitful question. Jesus knew these hypocritical Herodians (followers of King Herod) were only set on entrapment. Of course, the deceivers had no idea that they were confronting God Himself in a human nature, the “true God of whom there is no other” as declared by Isaiah in today’s First Reading.

So, after a bit of flattery they asked Him, “Should we pay taxes to Caesar or not?” We know Our Lord’s famous answer by heart. Yet, upon reflection, I would up asking myself: “What do I have that I mistakenly claim is mine that rightly belongs to God? My answer: “Everything!” From the right to life to the right to heavenly life and everything in between.”

After all, it enabled me to answer my alarm this morning. More than that, His promise to walk beside me during this new day and every other remaining day of my life is such a gift. This is especially comforting when life suddenly “throws me an unexpected curve ball.” His answer to that motley crew on that long ago day about who gets taxes is the only Christian way to live. I take courage from Our Lord’s way of handling challenges. Here follows the way someone else did:

When he was a young boy, the great painter Benjamin West decided to paint a picture of his sister while his mother was not at home. He got out the bottles of ink and started, but soon had an awful mess. His mother eventually returned and of course saw the mess. Instead of scolding him, she picked up the portrait and declared, “What a beautiful picture of your sister! Then she kissed him. Later in life he said, “With that kiss I became a painter.”

God love you and give you His encouragement.

YOUR ASSISTANCE, PLEASE STC MEN'S CLUB

Did you know that your parish Men's Club has been "adopting" parish (and previously Good Shepherd School) families to help make the Christmas season bright? If you answered "No", then we have done our job in keeping this initiative private out of respect for the families we help. To achieve this, only a select very few members who run the Adopt-A-Family project will ever know which families we are assisting.

For more information, please see the insert in this weekend's bulletin.

Memorial Mass for those whose funerals were in our parish in the past year:

St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish: St. John Church Sunday, November 5, 11:00 Mass

Please let us know if you and family members will be coming. You can respond on-line by using the QR code at the bottom or by calling the Parish Office.

Men's Club Minute

On September 27th, The Men's Club, along with friends and family, gathered at the Phillies-Pirates baseball game. While we missed the postseason clincher by 1 day, we got to see an exciting game.

Just two days later, some of our members, alongside members of the Spirited Business Works ministry, teamed up to serve breakfast at the Joseph House in Camden.

We had an event-filled weekend October 7th-8th, as we once again were a sponsor of the Joseph House 5K walk/run, as well as having some members volunteering and participating.

Sunday, we had another successful cornhole tournament to raise money for the Bill Bunting scholarship fund, followed by an Eagles watch party (and victory!) at McLaughlin Hall.

Saint of the Week: Saint John of Capistrano, Priest

Feast Day: October 23

Patronage: military chaplains and of those who work as judges and in various legal professions.

Christian saints, often considered great optimists, derive their confidence from the redemptive power of Christ, acknowledging the existence and impact of evil in the world. John Capistrano, born in 1386 during a tumultuous 14th century marked by the bubonic plague, the Western Schism, and widespread conflicts, epitomized this optimism. Initially a governor and later a priest, he dedicated his life to preaching and played a crucial role in reviving faith and devotion during a time of religious confusion. He also helped bring stability to the Franciscan Order, suppressed heretical movements, and facilitated reunions with other Christian denominations. In response to the fall of Constantinople to the Turks in 1453, he championed a crusade for the defense of Europe and led a victorious campaign in Hungary, ultimately succumbing to an infection on October 23, 1456.

GLORIA: Inside front cover of Breaking Bread

FIRST READING: Isaiah 45: 1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him, and making kings run in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred: For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not. I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, there is no other.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Give the Lord glory and honor.

SECOND READING: 1Thessalonians: 1: 1-5b

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

GOSPEL: Matthew 22: 15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

"Hearts on Fire, Feet on the Move" for World Mission Sunday!

Today, Pope Francis echoes the universal call of our Baptism, to be Christ's witnesses to the world. Today, as we gather with Catholics globally, our prayers and contributions to the Society for the Propagation of the faith bolster the pope's missions enabling: priests, religious sisters, and seminarians to share the faith, to educate children, to provide medical assistance and comfort to the orphaned and elderly.

By supporting this cause, we live out the call to be the spark that transforms lives. May your prayers and gifts create ripples of love and transformation. Thank you for your missionary zeal!
