Sanctuary Candle

The Sanctuary Lamp burns before the Blessed Sacrament 7 days a week, every week of the year Suggested offering is $25. The name of the donor and the person being remembered will be published in the bulletin.

Fans of certain TV series will tell you how distracted and annoyed they become when little “teaser” messages suddenly appear in the lower right-hand corner of the screen. They distract from the main action on screen. One of modern life’s small vexations.

Two thousand years ago, when that “scholar of the law” Pharisee, whom we might consider a “PhD” on the subject, approached Jesus with his question, he was coming from a background of teachers who had concocted 613 laws that covered almost any aspect of Jewish life. The main tenet of Moses’ law had gotten lost. This unnamed man wanted Jesus’ take on the matter. We see here that he received an answer from Our Lord in short order.

That Pharisee’s motives here were mixed at best. He knew that Jesus had “silenced” the Sadducees, his perpetual adversaries. Anything to build up the Pharisee camp by tearing down their opponents! But he didn’t realize that in Jesus he was up against a person who saw beneath the surface of anyone’s motives or conduct. I believe that there was a bit of a scold in the blunt reply Jesus made. No friendly introduction or follow-up praise.

Of course, the whole scene has implications for us and our thinking about religion and the things of God. Do we know what the main two-sided command of God is? I believe we almost automatically observe that first part about loving God with all our heart, soul and mind. This even though we sometimes choose other things as our “gods”? Things like power, wealth and fame? But at least most of us try to have the right priorities.

But it’s that second commandment, the one Our Lord says is “like” the first, that of loving our neighbor as ourselves, which gets most of us in the jungle of guilt. No matter how hard we try, the daily presence of shall I say “pesky or annoying” people often make us fall into rash judgment. That’s when we must remember what Jesus said about every other law depends on the first two.

One day a certain old rich man of a miserable disposition visited a rabbi, who took the rich man by the hand and led him to a window. “Look out there,” he said. The rich man looked into the street. “What do you see?” asked the rabbi. “I see men, women, and children,” answered the rich man. Again, the rabbi took him by the hand and this time led him to a mirror. “Now what do you see?” “Now I see myself,” the rich man replied.

Then the rabbi said, “Behold, in the window there is glass, and in the mirror, there is glass. But the glass of the mirror is covered with a little silver, and no sooner is the silver added than you cease to see others, but you see only yourself.”

God love you and give you His peace.

All Saints Day & All Souls Day on November 1st and 2nd

Catholics celebrate All Saints Day to honor all of the Church's saints—both known and unknown. We honor all of those people we formally know as saints and those people we meet every day who are living exemplary Christian lives. The following day, the Church celebrates All Souls Day, a remembrance of all the faithful departed. These Holy days are two excellent opportunities to celebrate the lives of those "everyday" saints in your life, such as grandparents, aunts, uncles, friends, etc.

Call to Worship

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time: October 29, 2023

Entrance Hymn: “In Christ Alone” Breaking Bread #415

1. In Christ alone my hope is found,
He is my light, my strength, my song;
This Cornerstone, this solid Ground,
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease!
My Comforter, my All in All,
Here in the love of Christ I stand.

2. In Christ alone! – who took on flesh,
Fullness of God in helpless babe.
This gift of love and righteousness,
Scorned by the ones He came to save:
Till on that cross as Jesus died,
The wrath of God was satisfied –
For every sin on Him was laid;
Here in the death of Christ I live.

3. There in the ground His body lay,
Light of the world by darkness slain;
Then bursting forth in glorious day
Up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory
Sin’s curse has lost its grip on me,
For I am His and He is mine –
Bought with the precious blood of Christ.

4. No guilt in life, no fear in death,
This is the power of Christ in me;
From life’s first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man,
Can ever pluck me from His hand:
Till He returns or calls me home,
Here in the power of Christ I’ll stand.

GLORIA: Inside front cover of Breaking Bread

FIRST READING: Exodus 22: 20-26

Thus says the LORD: "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans. "If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: I love you, Lord, my strength.

SECOND READING: 1Thessalonians: 1: 1– 5c—10

Brothers and sisters: You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

GOSPEL: Matthew 22: 34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

First Way Baby Bottle Collection

Baby bottles to help First Way of Col-lingswood are available to pick up in the back of both churches this weekend. They should be returned by the weekend of November 4-5. We have a limited number of collection counters, and it would be very helpful if you could convert at least some of your coins to bills. Thank you for your support!

Your Assistance, Please

Did you know that your parish Men's Club has been "adopting" parish (and previously Good Shepherd School) families to help make the Christmas season bright? If you answered "No", then we have done our job in keeping this initiative private out of respect for the families we help. To achieve this, only a select very few members who run the Adopt-A-Family project will ever know which families we are assisting.

But that means we need your help to be effective. We mention this not to seek plaudits, but families. In a time when the cost of everyday items has risen as family budgets get tighter, perhaps you know a family heading into a difficult holiday season. We would love to help, and no less so if that family is yours. In the past, we have assisted with gifts for the children, a night out for the family, and some gift cards for food shopping.

Please tell any officer or member of the Men's Club that you know of such a family, and we'll handle it discreetly from there. One way to reach out is an email to stteresamensclub@yahoo.com. Help us help someone have one less worry this Christmas season.
